For what I have been told, my step-father, found me as a babe in the Gypsy camps outside of Minoc. He took me home to Brit and rasied me. My father was a Paladin of a guild named The Firm. At the age of 11 my father was called away to yew to help his dear friend Mufasa defend his home. My father was gone for many moons. I was to be looked after by the Elders in the guild, yet they were busy most of the time, so i took to the woods. I would run with the animals and one day I meet Lord Zen of AOD. He was taken by my boldness to speak to him and invited me into his home. I was taken by all the bottles and strange items he had in his home. I remember he took my hand and pricked my finger and well thats about all I know. I was placed in his guild called AOD and he taught me many things. I was soon given the title of Dread Lady Anna and was known as a murderer for the next 11 months. I learned all I could on Nercomancy and Black Magic. One day I meet Smogg, our eyes meet and words

were said with out
voices. he said "It is not time yet Anna go
and I will call for you when it is" 6 months
later he called for me,
I came . Smogg
accepted me as a member of NCR at which time i vowed to serve him and NCR
with my life. I am now the dark mistress
of NCR , learning still the ways of all
Dark Arts.....
I am of Baali for I was embraced by Unforgiven of OES. I
soon hope to be a Master Vampire. I
serve all those of Oblivion.....
